Save on Mobile Costs and Get the Most Out of Your Resources

Mobile devices play a critical role in the lives of individuals, as well as the success of organizations. WidePoint is here to ensure that your solution is the best it can be.

Recognized for pioneering Managed Mobility Best Practices in both the Public and Private Sectors, WidePoint has enabled clients to save or cost avoid millions of dollars in net realized savings.

WidePoint offers a comprehensive database providing you with complete visibility to your mobility assets and services. Our cloud-based portal allows you to view where your assets are throughout your organization, providing cradle-to-grave lifecycle tracking, and customizable reporting for all associated costs.

By understanding the types of devices that are deployed and how they are used, current asset & service inventory and procurement can be effectively managed. To optimize your usage, we also take advantage of economies of scale and utilize all available voice, data, and message plans offered by the carriers.
